

THE LINCOLN-WAY high school Homecoming week will begin Oct. 5. There will be various activities sponsored by the Student Council for the student body, such as a sport day, a dress-up day, and a bonfire. The week will be climaxed by Saturday's football game (Oct. 10) and dance to which Lincoln-Way alumni is invited. The alumni will be honored at the dance with special dances, tags, an alumni attendance book, and a number of other innovations. An eight-piece band, with the "big band" sound, has been hired for the dance, and tickets for the alumni may be secured at the door.

Homecoming involves much preparation and planning on the part of the Student Council members. Council members seen here who are responsible for various phases of preparation are: (left to right, beginning at the back): Keith Schram, Mark Schonwise, Ray Jast, Pat Hartnell, Pat Burns, Bonnie Lauffer, Russell Batson, Judy Lewison, Bonnie Fredin, Irene Geuther, Pat Hartung, Jo VanRheeden, and Barb Toppen. Tax Bills Major Topic Of Conversation In Area

Since the tax bills have made their appearance - quite late this year because of countywide protests on valuations -- they have become a major conversation piece.

From Lincoln Estates Mrs. Marie Hogaveen, 80th ave. and U.S. 30 said that many persons there were paying their taxes under protest. She has drawn up a letter signed by herself and 89 other Lincoln Estate property owners, asking why taxes have risen so sharply. Copies of the letter have been sent to Assessor Harold Smith, County Treasurer Leo Waldvogel, State Treasurer William Scott, and several newspapers.

At Mokena the Sunny Acres Home Owners Association are to meet tonight, Sept. 17, in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall on Wolf rd., to discuss real estate taxes and assessments. Three officials are to address the meeting, Assessor Smith, Supervisor George Tate and Magistrate George Sangmeister. The meeting was announced by Albert Kuchenbecker, president of the association.

Assessor Smith states that anyone who feels the valuation on their property is too high insofar as fair market value should see him.

He explained that the assessors follow procedure and instructions laid down by the state department of revenue and the goal is to reach a valuation of 55% of the fair market value of a piece of property as the full assessed valuation.

"If the people will take the valuation of their property as shown on the tax bills just received," Smith said, "and double it -- then take off 10%, the result should be the valuation of the property I have placed on it as representing the price arrived at between a willing buyer and a willing seller."

Smith added that undoubtedly mechanical or clerical errors have found their way into the tax records. He says that he has endeavored to fix values to the best of his judgment and ability while at the same time following the procedures set up for assessors.

The letter circulated by Mrs. Hogaveen reads as follows:

"We, the undersigned property owners of Frankfort township, County of Will, State of Illinois, would like to know why taxes for 1963 have doubled and in some cases tripled, mostly on unimproved areas where no recent improvements have been made, while most comparable improved property has been lowered.

"Most of our taxes were raised in 1961, some as high as $200. We would like a reasonable explanation. Most of us live in Lincoln Estates, an unincorporated area with gravel roads, no sidewalks, no lights, no sewer system, no fire hydrants - just plain country property."

Attached to the letter is a statement in which Mrs. Hogaveen complains that she found a one-room dwelling occupied by a widow in which the taxes have gone up from $68 to $179, and she wonders why this should be.

Mr. Smith said that if individuals would see him first

Stolen Car Is Burned; $3,200 Cash Missing

A car stolen in Orland township last Friday was found destroyed by fire in Pilcher park, Joliet, Saturday morning by a police squad on routine patrol.

Owner of the car, Jess Stone, 7932 W. 139th st., reported that when it was stolen there was $3,200 -- in $100 bills -- in the glove compartment, according to police.

Joliet police and firemen stated that the car was so badly burned that they were unable to say what was in the glove compartment. An expert on ash was to make an examination to ascertain whether the money was still in the car when it was set on fire.

It was possible that he would be able to explain the situation. He added, however, that it was difficult to talk with groups because of the confusion that generally marks such meetings when numerous persons want the floor.

WORK ON 80TH AVE. in Lincoln Estates is progressing. Crews have been grading and widening the road and possibly next week they may begin building the stone base, according to Frankfort Township Highway Commissioner Walter Yunker, of Mokena. The base will be allowed to settle during the winter and next spring it will be surfaced. The new road, which runs south to the railroad tracks about half a mile, from U.S. 30. The surfaced pavement will be 22 feet wide and there will be shoulders and a slope to a ditch on either side. When the work was started there was considerable opposition because of the number of large, ancient trees that were cut down.

Voters Can Register In Area Pcts. On Saturday

Saturday, Sept. 19, is voters' registration day in Will County and all citizens, otherwise qualified, who have not registered, or have had a change in name since registering, or who will become of age on or before Nov. 3, 1964, can now do so.

Besides being a citizen one must have lived in the state a year, the county 90 days and the precinct 30 days in order to become a registered voter.

For the convenience of the voters County Clerk Clara Hartley Woodard has set up 47 registration centers in the county that will be open Saturday from 12 noon until 9 p.m.

If one has lost his voter's identification card he should apprise Mrs. Woodard of the fact and if a voter has moved within the county he should place such information on the back of his voter's card and mail it in to the county clerk's office. Registration, however, must be done in person.

On the Republican side Thomas Feehan, the party's county chairman, has appointed Attorney Louis Bertani, of Joliet, as Republican chairman for precinct registration day. No announcement of like nature was forthcoming from the Democrats.

Three registration centers have been designated for Frankfort township:

Frankfort Village hall for persons living south of Cleveland rd. to Pfeiffer rd. and the E.J. & E. tracks, west of Harlem ave., north of the Green Garden township line and east of the New Lenox township line.

Cooper - Hostert garage, Mokena, for persons in Frankfort township living south of Cook county, west of 68th ave., and north of Cleveland ave.

Ann Rutledge school, Lincoln Estates, for persons residing in Frankfort township south of North ave. west of Harlem ave., north of E.J. & E. tracks, east of Pfeiffer rd.

Green Garden residents may register at the town hall.

Manhattan voters may register at the Sportsman's hall, on Jessie st., in the village of Manhattan.

Three registration centers are to be operated in New Lenox township:

No. 1: Fire Engine House for voters living south of U. S. 30 west of Frankfort township line, north of the Manhattan township boundary and east of Cherry Hill road.

No. 2: Oakview school, N. Cedar rd., for those living south of the Homer line, west of the Frankfort township line; north of U.S. 30 and east of Clinton st.

No. 3: Trinity school, Gougar rd., for residents living south of the Homer township line, west of Clinton st. to Francis rd.; north of New Lenox road to Gougar rd. east of Cherry Hill rd.

Percy Flays Kerner, Daley

The Republicans are going to win the election in November, in the nation and in Illinois, declared Chuck Percy, GOP gubernatorial candidate to a crowd at the annual Will county Republican picnic at Valley View Farm last Saturday afternoon.

"I see on the bill boards about the state that the Democrats are making a play on the initials of Governor Otto Kerner, to imply that every thing is OK," said Percy.

"I believe we can make as much use of this as the Democrats. When you meet a Democrat just ask him if he is a Mayor Daley Democrat and if everything that Daley says is OK is OK with him.

"Is everything OK in Illinois elections where votes are stolen by the thousands under the Daley administration?"

"Is everything OK with the highways? With the delays in the building of IAL-80.

"Is everything OK in Chicago with all its crime and violence?"

"Is everything OK with the restaurant owners who are being bombed out?"

"Is it OK that Kerner vetoed higher state aid for education on the grounds there was no money for it yet there was money on hand for the purpose?"

At this point Percy turned to Ray Paige, state superintendent of schools for verification that there was money on hand, Paige agreed.

The only thing for which the Democrat are OK, Percy declared, is Mayor Daley's machine, and the only time Kerner can say OK is when Daley permits it.

BUSINESS & FINANCE

BY MAURICE P. ANGLAND
Labor Day is rather extensively regarded as the start of a new business year. It is a little difficult to explain the reasons for this holiday's business except that we now enter the Fall season and end of most vacations for this year.

The Mutual Fund industry is now the recipient of the most sincere type of flattery - copying their method of operation.

Investment circles have long been hearing rumors that Sears & Roebuck is to start a Mutual Fund under its direct management or that of a subsidiary. Sears is said to plan selling its own mutual fund in much the same way it now sells insurance.

For many years the Securities and Exchange Commission has prohibited the dealing in securities of another company which buys and sells securities.

The Securities and Exchange Commission has revised its rules in a manner which permits Sears to enter the mutual fund field. The rule's change which is assumed to accommodate Sears, is changed to permit dealing in securities of one investment company by another if the latter company did not receive more than 15 per cent of its gross revenues from the buying and selling of securities in the preceding three years period.

For some years, mutual funds have been prohibited from gaining stock ownership of more than 10 per cent of a particular firm either directly or indirectly. This rule stems from the days of interlocking holding companies which permitted control of large enterprises by individuals understanding the mechanics of corporate finance.

The new rule permits ownership of more than 10 per cent of another company if the investment firm receives less than 1 per cent of its gross revenues from the sale of securities. A very substantial portion of Sear's stock is owned by the Profit Sharing Plan of Sears employees. This Profit Sharing Plan is considered quite a boon to the Sears employees in the retail and mail order divisions as well as the other divisions of this industrial complex such as Allstate Insurance which is one of the largest and most successful in its segments of the insurance field. It recently added life insurance to its activities.

Investment analysts expect Sears to top the list for total annual merchandise sales and displace Great Atlantic & Pacific Co. which is the long time leader.

The various financial and industrial activities directed from Sear's top management, are evidence that highly complex business activities in a number of fields, can be successfully directed by a comparatively small group in top management.

In recent years it has been found that persons desiring to retire, may invest in well selected mutual funds and receive monthly checks which total up to six per cent of capital invested and at the end of 10 years, find that the total fund so invested, has greater capital value than the original investment. Such a growth situation cannot not be guaranteed, however, but has been the experience of a number of mutual funds.

The SEC as of July, permits the compilation of sales literature setting forth the income experience of well chosen investment in common stocks.

Insurance firms have desired to use their sales staffs to sell mutual funds of their own creation. The Prudential Insurance Co. has been active in promoting this field. Metropolitan Insurance Co. has been reluctant to go into common stock investment management. The Metropolitan management express belief that over the years they have become proficient in handling fixed income investments as mortgages and bonds, etc. They express belief that successful handling of common stock investments, is a field of its own.

Investment circles do not object to new entries into the mutual fund field, but insist that persons handling sales of investments, must take and pass the same examinations of knowledge of investments, that are required of present investment men.

Tavern Owner Must Make Up Mind On License Fee

By the time this paper is on the street Ray DiCicco, owner of the Village Inn, 143rd and LaGrange road, will have decided whether to pay $1,000 for a late liquor sales tavern license that will last him only to the end of the year or whether to maintain regular closing hours until then.

The village board voted Monday night to refund his money, if he wishes it, but to make up his mind in 48 hours.

The village board adopted an ordinance last December in which it set a fee of $1000

Biologists To Meet At Stagg High Saturday

About 15 biology instructors from the south suburban area will attend a special briefing session at Stagg high school on Saturday. Jointly sponsored by the Biological Science Curriculum Study (BSCS) and District 230, the session will give teachers a second chance to become familiar with the BSCS approach to biology.

The session, led by two consultants from the Milwaukee public schools, will emphasize the use of special materials developed for use in classes of slow learners.

James R. Keith, chairman of the science department at Sandburg, will head the program. Only those teachers who have attended the special briefing session will be permitted to use the materials in their classes.

W. O. Fisher, superintendent, agreed to furnish the necessary facilities and materials for the briefing. Invitations were sent to each principal and each science department chairman in the South West and South East Suburban conferences.

Many area teachers attended earlier briefing sessions, but this one was scheduled for those who were unable to attend earlier programs.

Ford Gives Awards For Auto Sales

Wiggins also said that George E. Hardan, a Cooper-Show salesman, won a 1965 Mustang as a result of the sales contest.

"The event began June 21 and ended July 31," the Ford Division executive

Bob Mehling Aids Drake's New Students

A portion of the 1,500 new students scheduled to arrive on the Drake campus this fall will be assigned to each counselor for guidance thru orientation activities and new student registration.

said. "We divided the 86 participating dealers into seven groups with the top sales manager and salesman in each group winning $1,000 and a Mustang respectively."

Other prizes in the contest, which brought the total to $40,000, included milk stoles, color television sets, stereo phonographs, outboard motors and golf clubs, Mr. Wiggins added.

"This Mustang Handicap was by far the most extensive sales contest ever conducted by the Chicago district of Ford Division," he said.

Counselors were selected last spring by an orientation counselor committee. A planning session for the orientation counselors and leaders was held last spring. They will report back to the campus next Saturday, Sept. 12, for additional training sessions.

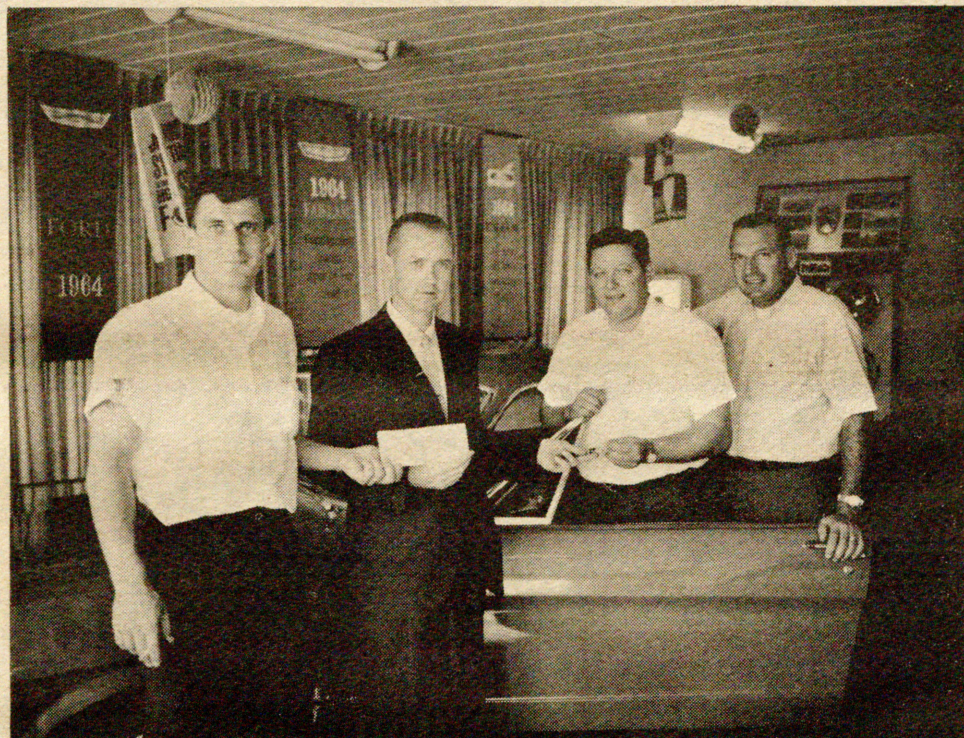

Classes for the fall term at Drake will start Sept. 21. Enrollment this fall is expected to exceed 4,500 full-time students.

Vandals Twist Highway Sign, Cause Wreck

Vandals who twisted a road sign so a curve warning was not visible are blamed for a crash that injured State Trooper Harold Wagner, 33, of 5561 Margie Lane, Oak Forest, late Saturday night. The incident occurred on 183rd st. near 84th ave. in Orland township. Wagner's captain at Blue Island, Clyde Oliver, said the trooper was unaware of the curve until too late, because the sign was not visible.

Wagner's car skidded 35 feet into a ditch and he suffered multiple injuries. Police were also investigating two other instances in the same area where road signs have been tampered with by vandals.

highlighted on Lions Candy Day for the blind, Friday, Oct. 9, conducted by the 560 Lions clubs of the State. Governor Kerner said in his proclamation: "This vital work is an outstanding project of the twenty-five thousand Lions of Illinois, and is considered worthy of official sanction."

Candy Day contributions go to support Hadley School for the Blind, where the sightless are taught thru braille and recorded correspondence high school and college courses, and to Leader Dog School where blind men and women are furnished guide dogs and training of dog and master. These services are provided at no cost to the blind. Lions Candy Day provides blind persons with education and mobility, opens job opportunities and makes possible their independence.

Thousands of Lions, their wives and volunteers throughout the entire state will be wearing the familiar Lions yellow caps and offering candy rolls for this worth-while cause.

St. Mary's To Celebrate Centennial

A week of special services, Sunday, Sept. 20 to 27 is planned by the parish of St. Mary's Catholic church of Mokena in commemoration of its 100th anniversary.

An open house will be held Sunday, Sept. 20, from 2 to 5 o'clock with the public invited on a conducted tour of the present church on 195th street, convent, school, old church and cemetery. Members of the Confraternity Christine Doctrine will serve as guides. Refreshments will be served following the tour.

On Wednesday, Sept. 23 at 8 p.m. a Rosary and Benediction service will be given by the Rev. Fr. Cecil Koop, O.F.M. and on Friday, Sept. 25 at 8 o'clock a Dialogue Mass will be said by the pastor.

One of the highlights of the centennial celebration will be an outdoor worship service Sunday, Sept. 27 on the grounds of the old church. Parishioners will take part in a procession from the present church to the old structure where pontifical high mass will be said at 11:30 a.m. by Father Cecil Koop, pastor, who will be assisted by the Rev. Roman Hasenstab and the Rev. Benedict Pfeifer. Special music will be provided by the Westmont Seminary Boys' choir under the direction of Fr. Tarcissus Fisher, C.F.M.

In the evening a banquet, honoring all the former priests and nuns of the parish, will be held in the new gymnasium starting at 5:30 o'clock.

Continuing the celebration a program will follow with Msgr. Romeo Blanchette of Joliet and the Rev. Dominic Limacher, St. Louis, Mo. as the guest speakers. Everett J. Cooper, president of the Mokena State bank, will serve as toastmaster. A pageant will be staged as the conclusion of the evening's affair.

Tickets for the banquet are now available and must be purchased in advance, it was said, as none will be sold at the door.

Thru faith and determination some nine families founded St. Mary's church in 1864. It was built at a cost of $1,400 by the late Mr. Folman, a Mokena contractor. Father Peter Fassbender served as the parish priest at the then German Catholic church. A church cemetery is adjacent to the house of worship which is still in use today.

Because this church is the oldest structure of worship in the village of Mokena and has many nostalgic memories for its parishioners, the church has been restored and will be used as a chapel in the future. A six foot cyclone fence has been erected around the church and cemetery with several gateways providing entrance to the property.

Enlarging on its properties a parish hall, located a few feet west of the church, was added in 1926 and 23 years later, in 1949, was converted into a parochial school which was comprised of the first six grades. Within two years the seventh and eighth grades were added. The teaching staff was composed of the Franciscan Sisters of the Sacred Heart.

Following the opening of the school the parish grew rapidly and in 1955 a new brick church was built on land located at 195th street and Wolf road. Using foresight in the construction a new parochial school was added to the church.

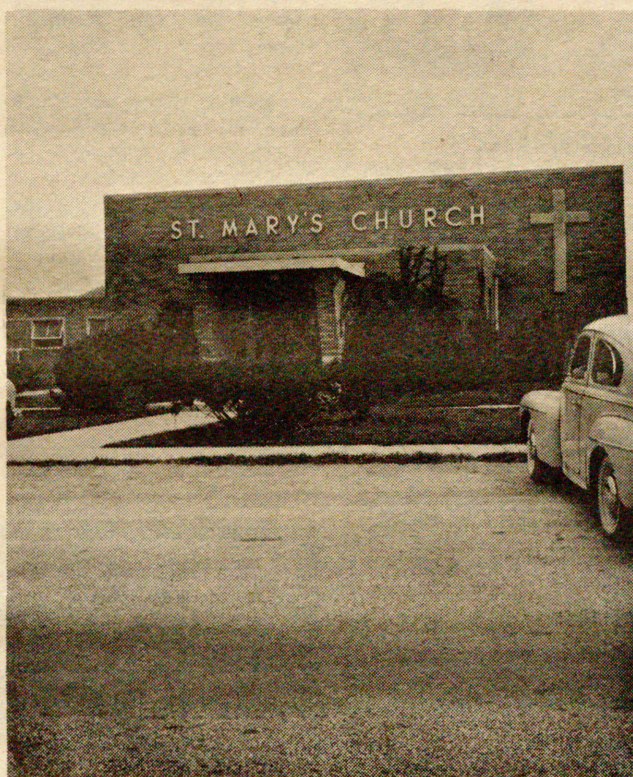

Buses were purchased to transport the students and thru the volunteer labor of members of the Holy Name Society of the parish a new combined gymnasium and garage was completed in 1962. A new bus was purchased in June, 1964 thru the aid of students, parents, and parishioners selling old papers, bottle caps, trading stamps and anything else that would bring in a penny or a dollar. Purchase of the bus, which seats 60 passengers, was accomplished under the leadership of Dr. Eleanor Hamilton, a pediatrician who has offices in Chicago but resides in Mokena. She noticed the children, waiting for the bus in the morning, were clowning around and one of them suffered a broken arm. She reasoned that if there were another bus there would be no need for long intervals of waiting and so less chance for accidents.

At present, due to the ever increasing student enrollment, eight additional classrooms are under construction with four rooms to be ready for occupancy by the first of the year.

Ground was broken in 1960 for a new convent which was completed the following year. The bi-level T-shape structure was erected on a 10-acre parcel of land adjacent to the church and school. It contains nine bedrooms, chapel, dining room, kitchen, baths and study. The bedrooms are built above an English type basement. The home is built to accommodate 11 nuns. The exterior of the building is in light brick to match that of the church and school.

100 YEARS OLD but still serves parish. This is the original St. Mary's church at Mokena, built in 1864 and continued to meet the spiritual need of the parishioners for 91 years. In 1955 it was replaced by a new church (below) in a new location. The old church is on St. Mary's Lane, which would be a continuation of 195th st. The new church is on 195th st. at 114th ave. The old church has been renovated and is now serving the parish as a chapel.

There are three active organizations within the parish; the Altar and Rosary Society with Mrs. Mary Roach president; the Holy Name Society, Donald Doctor, president and The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, with Lawrence Weathers serving as president.

The past one hundred years has seen a nine-family parish grow to a 500-family parish and it is hoped it will continue to grow in number and strength. Aiding in assistance and guidance in the growth of the parish is Father Cecil Koop, O.F.M.,

Plans Citations For Civic Achievements

The Palos Orland Worth Planning Council (POW) will award citations for outstanding civic achievements of its members towns at the concluding dinner session of the Third Annual Seminar on Community Planning Wednesday, Oct. 21, at the Palos Country club, 135th & Southwest Highway, Palos Park.

Feature speaker at the banquet will be Matthew Rockwell, head of Northeastern Illinois Planning Commission.

Citations will be presented in three categories: to an individual for his or her contribution to community betterment, to an organization or agency for a notable contribution in its field, and to a city or village of POW for an outstanding advancement to community development or improvement.

Any individual or organization (civic, municipal, church, social, service, political) may place a nomination any person, group, or town that has made an outstanding contribution to the POW area or any of the cities or villages within its boundaries. Municipalities in the POW area are Alsip, Bridgeview, Crestwood, Chicago Ridge, Hickory Hills, Orland Park, Palos Heights, Palos Hills, Palos Park, and Worth.

Nomination blanks may be obtained at the village halls.

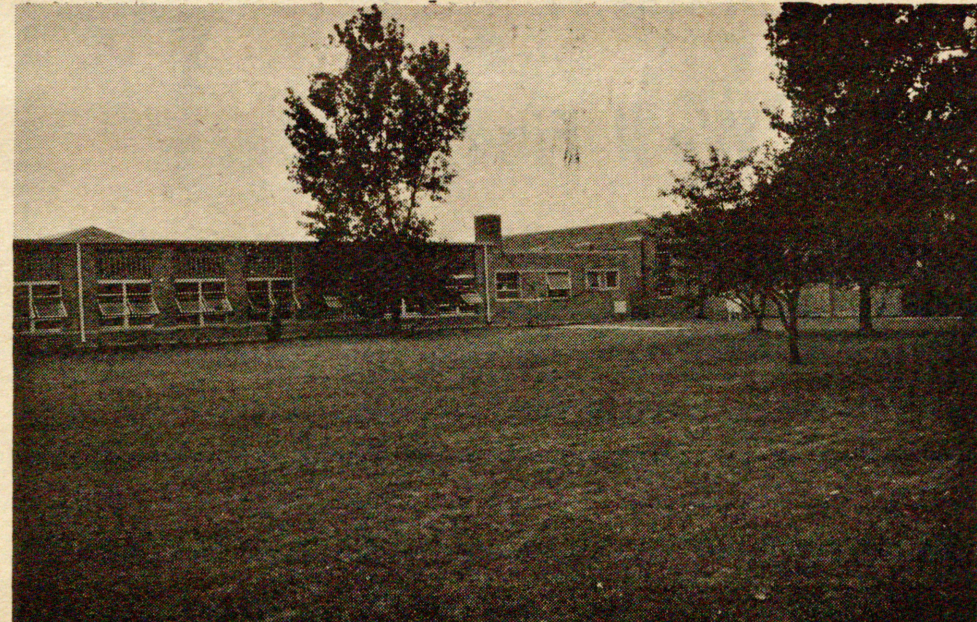

Nominations may be made in any one category or in all three. Deadline for submitting nominations is Oct. 10.

Seminar Chairman Sigmund Kapp, Worth, announcing the citations said:

"POW realizes the efforts of the many citizens who contribute in many fields to build and improve the communities of the POW area. Recognizing these contributions and the fact that so many go nameless each year we are pleased to start what we hope will be the first of many such awards to follow. Judging of the citations will not be done on a comparative basis but rather on merit alone."

CONVENT FOR the nuns that teach in St. Mary's school was started in 1960 and completed the following year. It is a matter of but a few steps from the convent of the school and not too many more to the church itself. (Graphic Newspapers photos)

SCHOOL IS GROWING -- St. Mary's parochial school outgrew the parish hall on St. Mary's Lane and was moved to its present location adjacent to the church. Now further increases in enrollment have made a new addition to the school necessary.

Can Enter Now In Annual Punt, Pass, Kick Contest

Grade and junior high school boys from 8 thru 13 years of age from the Frankfort area have until Oct. 9 to sign up for the fourth annual Punt, Pass & Kick competition sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America and the National Football League. Cooper-Show Ford of Frankfort is the local sponsor. The competition there is to be held in Frankfort Park, Oct. 10.

Frankfort area boys will be tested for their ability to punt, pass and place-kick on the same day as thousands of other boys all over the country.

For 8-- 9-- and 10-year-old, warm-up jackets, place-kicker outfit and autographed footballs will be given as first, second and third prizes for each age group. Boys, 11, 12 and 13 will receive gold, silver and bronze trophies--18 prizes in all.

Scores thruout the country will be compared to determine the six top winners in each of the 362

Ford zones--a total of 2,172 winners.

Zone winners will meet in 37 district contests at which 222 district champions will win trophies, as well as the 222 runners-up. From these district champions the best 168 scores will be selected, 12 to represent each of the 14 NFL game areas, and declared area winners.

Ralph Show, of the Frankfort Ford agency, pointed out that the competition involves no body contact, there is no charge for entering and no special equipment is needed.

Entrants will be judged on distance and accuracy of their punting, passing and place-kicking. Points will be awarded for each foot of distance the ball travels on the fly, and points will be subtracted for each foot the ball lands to the left or right of a center line.

Ties will be played off the day of competition.

7 Lettermen Are Back For L-W Grid Season

BY NORMAN BEEBE vision of a new head coach, Bob Allen, a new backfield

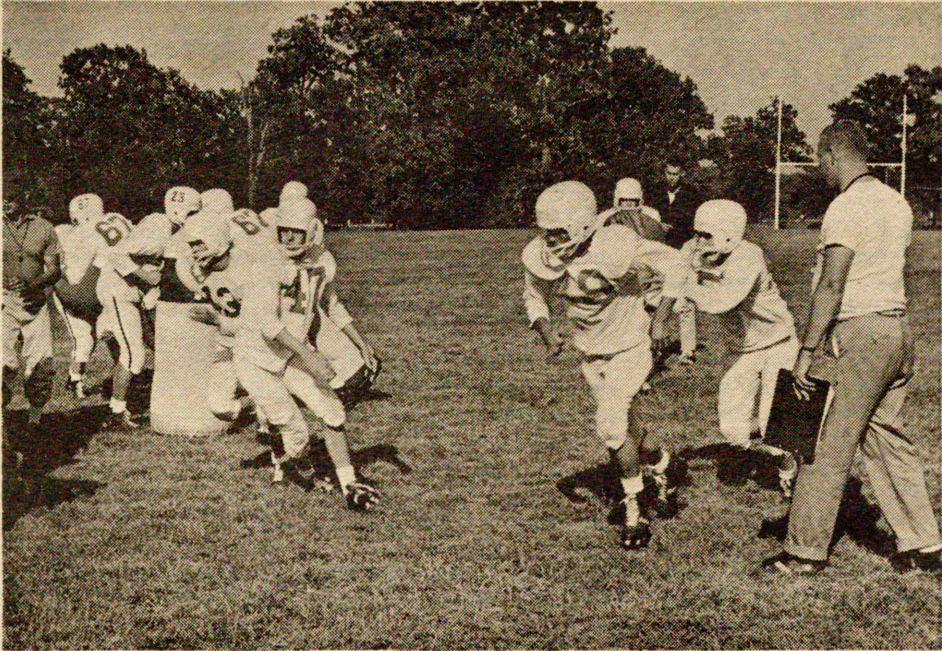

BOB ALLEN, new varsity football coach at Lincoln-Way is in the center of this huddle. He is giving out with some advice to players -- at close range.

coach, Ron Stopka and the veteran line coaches, Ray Page and Ron Meleney, the prospects for an improved season at Lincoln-Way are hopeful.

This season the Knights are bolstered by seven returning lettermen. Howard Grimes, 6'4", 200 lbs., once again accepts the duty as quarterback. Jeff Urban, 5'10", 185 lbs., last year's leading ground gainer, will return as fullback. Don Ferrell, 5'9", 170 lbs., and Tom Hamilton, 6', 175 lbs., will take on the obligation of right and left halfback respectively. To support this year's tough backfield, Lincoln-Way has three lettermen: Rick Brooks, 5'10", 190 lbs., center; Ted Wilborn, 5'11", 175 lbs., will be this year's right tackle and Craig Cieply, 5'10", 150 lbs., will lend his talents at left end.

Complementing these veteran seniors are juniors, Marc Schounwise and Jim Markel at halfback with Kieth Schram backing up Howard Grimes at quarterback. Filling the vacant end slots will be Bob Bowser, Craig Cieply and Mike Bernard. Wendy Bormet, Tom Stoner, Tom Cochran and Tom Hartnell are guard candidates.

LIMBERING UP -- Lincoln-Way football players have been working hard in preparation for the coming season that opens Saturday against Lemont and then just keeps on going. The coach at the left is Ron Meleney and the one with the clipboard is Ray Page, who tutors the line. In the back, in the dark sweater or jacket is Ed Edson, assistant basketball and football coach.

This season the varsity roster contains two sophomores: Don Ball, 6', 185 lbs., playing left tackle, and Tom Hartnell, 6'2", 180 lbs., playing left guard. Andy Anderson, 185 lb. junior tackle, Ray Hommels, 160 lb. junior center, and Don Smego, 160 lb. senior halfback, will also see plenty of action for the Knights.

Altho inexperienced in the line, the boys on this year's varsity are looking for the start of a successful season with a victory over the Indians of Lemont. The game will be played Saturday, (Sept. 19) at Lemont.

Eagles To Get Test Against Morgan Park

BY TIM SEDGWICK
Carl Sandburg football team will face its first opponents, Morgan Park, this Saturday.

The game here will begin at 12 o'clock for the frosh-soph and 2 o'clock for the varsity. Being the first game, it may very well show how the Eagles will do this year.

Morgan Park has gone to the semi-finals two years in a row in the Chicago City championships, but graduation has left this year's team with few starters from last season.

A win for the Eagles could raise the morale and set the pace to the conference crown.

The Sandburg team is optimistic. Tho many of the players are inexperienced in varsity ball, talent and desire seem to be there.

On offense the Eagles are lead by Garth Aronson, who is the only starter from last year, having filled the quarterback position the last half of the year after Pat Heniff was injured. In addition "this year's team has the best backfield for overall depth and balance in the last four years," said backfield coach Cliff Eade.

"The defensive backfield this year is strong and aggressive," according to defensive backfield coach John Stolt. He added that "what they lack in speed they make up in quickness and response. While there are no returning regulars in the backfield's defensive lineup, the unit shows great potential and promise."

The other strong factor in a team is the line. Line coach Wayne Lunak feels that "the line is rich in ability and size."

The Eagles are untried. No one knows how they will stand against another team, and no one knows if they can mold themselves into a winning unit Saturday.

BY BIRDIE McDIVOTT

The members of Willow Run Women's Golf Club are enjoying the beautiful weather for golfing. Marge Istel and Helen Churchill both had a net 39, Grace Mitchell, a net 44 and Bea Olsen a net 48 to win the golf balls last week. This week 5th and 6th place will win the prizes.

On the match games, Grace Mitchell beat Helen Churchill, 1 up and Charmaine Songergaard beat Esther Hug, 1 up.

We are planning a special day of golf sometime in September. Details will be worked out soon.

Do not be surprised to see one of our members wading thru mud and water on #9 to get her ball. She was determined not to lose it. However, she found everyone elses but her own. Besides two very muddy feet she did get enough balls to warrant her loss.

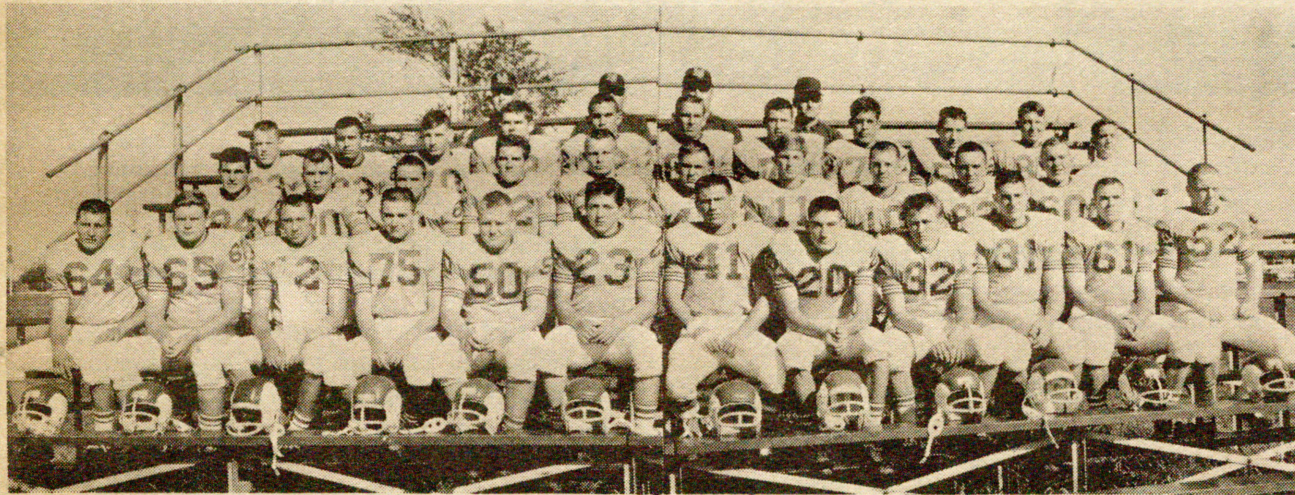

See you next week?

(CNS) The Cook county board of commissioners last week took action on prohibiting the shooting of deer with a bow and arrow in Cook county, providing a 50 to 500 dollar fine for violators. The Department of Conservation generally prohibits the shooting of deer with a gun in the State of Illinois, but just recently approved the shooting of deer with a bow and arrow for the fall season. The ordinance is designed to expire on Dec. 31, 1964.

President of the board, Seymour Simon said the ordinance is necessary to keep people from being shot by deer hunters.

The Working Classes

J. A. WARD

If you want to work for your candidate for president, congressman, mayor, sheriff, or some other office, the place to start is with the local campaign chairman of your candidate's party. Volunteers are the lifeblood of every successful political campaign. So if you really want to help your party or your candidate "Step Up and Volunteer", then remember these rules: Don't shirk any job given you. Don't be a no show--volunteer for anything. Then be ready to work at anything that needs doing.

Not all the work is emptying ashtrays and serving coffee. One of the biggest headaches is money, so don't flinch when money is mentioned. But if you're one of those timid souls who just can't raise money, say so. If you can type you'll probably be asked to work at campaign headquarters or at home, if you have a typewriter, typing pieces of campaign literature and letters. If you can give one or two hours a day or week, some one in a well run campaign will be eager to schedule you for that time.

Typing isn't all that's needed; any of this literature can be addressed by hand if necessary, and someone has to stuff envelopes, seal, stamp, and mail them. If you do your part at home, a volunteer will pick up your finished work and bring another load. Another important job is telephoning to get voters registered, to appeal for votes, and to get out the vote on Election Day.

If you have the time, you may be asked to help canvass your precinct to find out how many voters are in each house, if they are registered, their party affiliation, if they are supporting your candidate, if they need transportation to the polls, or if they need election day baby sitters. This can be a telephone or door-to-door job. If you are asked to work canvassing your neighborhood, take the time to get well informed about your candidate or candidates, their past record and platform. Then try to be informed about the people you're interviewing. Talk to their neighbors long enough to find out who they are and what they do.

Some 2,000,000 volunteer workers will be needed to properly man the 170,000 precincts in the U.S. Politicians say it's hard to get volunteers to work in their own neighborhoods--too many chiefs, not enough Indians. So we say that if you want to help your party and your candidate "Stand Up and Volunteer", then be ready to work wherever and at whatever needs doing.

ASC Chairman Explains Substitution Program

One feature of the 1965 voluntary wheat program which was not available in 1964 is the so-called "substitution" provision, Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the Cook County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, pointed out recently.

This means, he said, that a producer who has both a farm wheat allotment and a feed grain base, and who signs up for both programs, will be eligible to grow wheat on feed grain permitted acres, or grow feed grains on all or part of the wheat permitted acres.

"Such a producer would take part in the 1965 program relating to wheat and feed grains exactly as he would without the substitution provision except that the acreage of either wheat or feed grains could be greater," Mr. Bormet went on. "The diversion payment such a producer would earn under the programs, while using the substitution provision, would depend upon the crop actually diverted from production into an approved conserving use. In other words, if the farm's wheat acreage exceeded the wheat allotment, the participating producer would receive diversion payments based on the rate applicable to the feed grain reduced."

The chairman explained that a producer who plants wheat in lieu of feed grains may put this wheat under loan, but he will not be eligible for additional certificates because of the substitution. Likewise, a producer who plants feed grains on wheat allotment acreage may put this feed grain production under loan, but he will not be eligible for feed grain program price support payments on this acreage. A producer not eligible for the benefits of both programs may still obtain the benefits of the program in which he is eligible.

Substitutions may also be made as between wheat and oats and rye if a separate oats-rye base acreage is established for the farm. Growers who are interested in this option may discuss the matter with the ASC county committee at the time of signing up for the 1965 wheat program.

Farm Mechanics Course Offered In Adult School

Agricultural mechanics will be one of the courses given in the Adult Education program at Lincoln-Way high school this fall and registration is scheduled for tonight between 7 and 8 o'clock at the school. The first class is scheduled for 7 p.m. next Thursday, Sept. 24.

The class will be taught by Robert VanRheeden, head of the Vo-Ag department at Lincoln-Way.

The course covers small gasoline engines, electrical wiring and electric-arc and oxy-acetylene welding.

The first three meetings, VanRheeden said, will cover each of the three areas set up for the course. At this point students may concentrate on a single area for the remainder of the classes.

The Electrical Wiring Kit from the U. of I. will be used to provide practical experience and will be taught according to the National Electrical Code.

Small gasoline engines will be on hand for demonstrational purposes. Students may bring their own lawnmower engines for overhaul.

Welding equipment will be available as well as scrap metal for practice work. Students may bring in broken metal parts for repair or may construct new metal projects.

If enrollment warrants, George Kuehn, industrial arts teacher, will join Mr. VanRheeden in instructing the class. Enrollment fee is $10.

Announce Low Bids On FAI-80 Jobs In Area

Two projects involving FAI-80 highway in this area were among those included in the contract letting of $45,601,268 at Springfield to set a new high for a single letting.

The projects affecting this area, the first in Will county east of Joliet, cover grade separations.

There are two separations in the one contract covering the crossing of Hickory creek, the Rock Island railroad and U.S. 30, in the vicinity of Providence high school, east of Gougar road in New Lenox township.

The apparent low bidder on this contract was E. J. Albrecht Co., of Chicago, whose figure for the work was $878,264.

The other contract, which went to Joliet Bridge & Construction Co., of Joliet, for $263,944, is for a railroad subway structure carrying the New York Central railroad over I-80.

There has been a long delay in getting any work started on FAI-80 east of Joliet, it has been pointed out repeatedly by village and city officials and chambers of commerce of the communities involved. The portion of the highway that lies between Joliet and Hazel Crest has been described as vital to the economy. Traffic heading west can travel over FAI-80 Hazel Crest and then bogs down, it was explained. U.S. 30, also an east and west highway, is quite inadequate in many portions to accommodate modern traffic, it was said.

There has been no talk of grading contracts yet but, say those who have been following the story of I-80, this is explained by the fact that very little right-of-way has been obtained east of Joliet.
